

THE CORNER STONE IS WELL AND TRULY LAID

Earl Grey, Governor General, performed the ceremony for the laying of the corner stone of the new building of the Government of Saskatchewan at Regina, Oct. 4.

Regina, Oct. 4.—Punctually at 2.30 heralded by the booming of cannon the vice-regal party, escorted by a detachment of Mounted police, arrived at the building and passing through the guard of honor furnished by the newly-arrived regiment, were received by Lieut. Governor A. Forget, Premier Scott, and members of the provincial government, and assembled platforms standing hand-in-hand, and accompanied by four brass bands playing the National anthem.

His Excellency and those comprising his party had hardly taken their seats when amid many respectful salutes the most pleasing feature of the whole ceremony took place, the singing of the Maple Leaf Forever by twelve hundred school children, who were massed upon a special stand to the right of the vice-regal party.

It was a striking scene and truly fitting in connection with such an occasion in the history of this great agricultural province.

At the close of the rendition of the song His Excellency made a short address of welcome to the governor general. "We are gathered here today," he said, "upon the occasion of an unusual significance in the history of Saskatchewan. His Excellency the Governor General has graciously allowed to lay the corner stone of the building which is to shelter the legislative assembly and executive of this province. I am sure I will be only expressing the unanimous sentiment of every citizen gathered round when I say that we highly appreciate His Excellency's gracious act. (loud applause.)"

Premier Scott then called upon the clerk of the legislative assembly (Mr. S. Page) to read an invocation. At the close of the reading of the invocation, Premier Scott said that all present would remember with grateful appreciation that the import and stop which would be witnessed in the development of provincial life was honored by the presence of one so distinguished and illustrious, both in official and private life, as the governor general.

Before proceeding with the actual ceremony he would ask Hon. W. R. Motherwell to convey an expression of sentiment of the province towards the Legislature.

The provincial secretary then read the following address:—
Provincial Address.
Right Honourable Sir, Viscount Haldane, Earl Grey, Viscount

Howick, Baron Grey of Howick in the County of Northumberland in the Peerage of the United Kingdom, and a Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor General of Canada.

May it Please Your Excellency—The government of this province of Saskatchewan desires to take this opportunity to express its sincere appreciation of the kindly courtesy and interest which Your Excellency has shown in this province during your tenure of the high office of governor general of these portions of His Majesty's dominions, the latest evidence of which is shown by your presence here this day.

Four years ago you took the leading part in celebrating the entrance of the province of Saskatchewan into the confederation of Canadian provinces in this North American continent, and today you will practically complete that work by laying the corner stone of this building, which is destined, as all hope and trust, to bring the future of this province to the benefit of its people, and the guidance of their future.

During the past four years the growth of this province has, under your leadership, been marvellous. Our people have well-nigh doubled their numbers, the crops of grain they are taking from the land to provide food for the empire have increased by one hundred and fifty millions of bushels annually, the area under cultivation has been four times that in 1903. No concrete case can be cited to show the progress of this province more clearly than the fact that in 1903 there were no more in number than are now enrolled in one of the schools of the city, and today there are eight school buildings in which instruction in all branches of education from the kindergarten upwards through a part of the university course, are given.

This prosperous condition of our people is one that we feel sure will be pleasing to Your Excellency, and we do not doubt but that the people of this province have Your Excellency's good wishes for its continuance during the years to come.

The government desires to record its gratification at the presence of Her Excellency with other members of your family and be permitted to wish that all blessings may be enjoyed by them and you.

Dated at the executive council chamber at Regina in the province of Saskatchewan in the Dominion of Canada, this fourth day of October, A.D. 1908.

WALTER SCOTT,
J. A. CALDER,
W. R. MOTHERWELL,
A. TURGEON.

A. P. McNAB.

Members of the Executive Council.

The reading and presentation of this address was received with hearty applause which turned into a burst of enthusiastic cheering as His Excellency rose to reply.

His Excellency's Reply.

Your Honor, Premier Scott, Ladies and Gentlemen,—I consider myself exceptionally fortunate that the feasible privilege reserved to the representatives of the crown of presiding over the official birth of the twentieth century province of Saskatchewan and Alberta, and of the larger corner stone of the executive and legislative buildings should have been placed within the term of my governor-generalship. The distinction of being thus personally and officially connected with the two provinces, each of which are more than twice as large as the United Kingdom, and each of which is destined to bring to the British Crown a contribution of strength and glory, all of which to man can at present measure, is a distinction which will ever remain with me and mine, as a cause of special joy and pride.

Although your political life is only just begun, your life justifies the expectation that it will surely open a splendid population, a record of ever-increasing service and usefulness to Canada and to the Empire. Recent figures show increases in your railways, in your grain output and the eastern and inland revenues of the province within your little time to be to you a source of congratulation and of hope.

Indications of Future Strength.

They are not only proof of the vigorous growth but indications of your future strength. A favorable providence has blessed you with no vicariously high price. If you could rely on a continuance, year after year, of the conditions of this year, you would become the richest people in the world, and as an immediate result, you would abandon his city in favor of the farm.

It would be wise for you to treat the big profits of this year as capital and as an immediate result, you would abandon his city in favor of the farm.

It would be wise for you to treat the big profits of this year as capital and as an immediate result, you would abandon his city in favor of the farm.

It would be wise for you to treat the big profits of this year as capital and as an immediate result, you would abandon his city in favor of the farm.

Grain Development.

Nine million bushels of grain was the total of your grain last year. Five years ago, before you received your provincial rights, the total of your grain crop reached thirty-seven millions. This fourfold increase in million in 1908 to thirty-seven million in 1904, has been followed by still a greater increase in the next five years from thirty-seven million in 1904 to upwards of two hundred million in the present year.

Of this two hundred million bushels upwards of eighty million have been wheat. Ladies and Gentlemen, when you consider that the largest wheat output in the United States in any one year has been eight hundred million bushels, and that your province has in the early days of her youth harvested a crop equal to one tenth of the total wheat crop harvested in one year over the whole of the United States, then even now you have this year under cultivation do not export one tenth of the equally good land in your province waiting for the plough, you can form some estimate of the richest future awaiting your province.

Importance of Education.

I observe with pleasure, Mr. Scott, that you refer in your address to the children and the fact that you have provided school accommodation in Regina for eight times as many children as I saw at the inauguration celebration four years ago. I rejoice to believe that you thoroughly understand the importance of sparing neither time nor trouble nor money on the education of your children. The future of the province obviously presents one way in which the influence of home and school life will mould the character of the rising generation. It rests with you to provide an education which will inspire your boys with an ambition to serve the community and the state and to be successful and reputable agriculturists rather than to obtain employment in stony and over-crowded cities, and your girls with ambitions to be presiding divines of beautiful and refined country homes.

What It Means to Be a Britisher. The manifestation of a healthy patriotic, national and Imperial sentiment, both here and at Edmonton, will satisfy the world how passionately rare is the advantage you possess in being British subjects. You have realized that a continuance of your present British subjects is an uninterrupted maintenance of the supremacy of the English speaking race on the sea. If that supremacy were to be interfered with even for a moment, it would be a disaster to stop the export of your grain from the mouth of the St. Lawrence to Vancouver, every one of your farmers would suffer. There is no doubt that the British Empire that is most interested in the maintenance of the British Empire is your province. The people of the motherland have most gallantly undertaken the responsibility of insuring single-handed the safety of your over-seas trade until you are strong enough to come to her assistance. Your self respect as well as your interest will not allow you

OPENING OF SUPREME COURT.

Simpson vs. Brandon was one of the first cases to come up in the Supreme Court this morning on the opening of the September sitting.

A. E. Simpson, the plaintiff, claimed $18.50 for work done on the telephone in the Dominion Theatre Company.

Ray Brandon started out with the fact that he had been directed by the Dominion Theatre Company, A. W. Cameron, M. F. Cameron, and J. W. Cameron, to engage Simpson to do work on the Jasper avenue store which changed its name to the Dominion Theatre. The understanding was that Simpson was to be paid by himself, and the remainder by Mr. Cameron and Mr. Cameron.

Jeanne Russell Brandon had a lease of the Dominion Theatre but this had no connection with the case. She was paid for a monthly rental of $75 was paid.

Mr. Cameron stated that he had not been told Simpson that he would not be responsible for the work done on the telephone. Chief Justice Sifton held that going on the telephone was not part of the work done, and ordered the amount paid into court (cost of the plaintiff).
